HOW WE WILL HANDLE YOUR COMPLAINT

We aim to resolve all complaints in a fair and timely manner. We will acknowledge your complaints in writing within 5 business days of receipt and inform you who is handling your complaint. As necessary, we will review all the documentation and information available to us to carry out a thorough and objective investigation. In some instances, we may need to ask you for further information or to provide authority for us to contact third parties.

Once an assessment and full investigation of your concerns has been made, we will provide you with a written response to confirm our decision. We will endeavour to do this within 4 weeks of receipt. However, if we have been unable to complete our investigation within 4 weeks of receipt we will then write and provide you with an update. Our intended maximum response period for our final written response is 8 weeks from receipt we will provide you with a further update at that time. If we believe that you have suffered financial loss caused by our handling of your affairs, we may, at our discretion, offer you financial redress or some other means of restitution, which may include an apology, an offer to re-do the work or refund our fees. If we do not believe that we are to blame for the circumstances specified in your complaint or if we do not consider that you suffered financial loss as a result of our actions, we will confirm that to you in our response.

Following our Complaint Handling Procedure does not affect your right to take legal action.
